Italy Sends Troops to French Area

By FRANK GERVASI

International News Service Staff Correspondent

ROME, May 19—In a warlike gesture, Premier Mussolini today rushed two divisions of crack Libyan troops—30,000 warriors—to the border of French Tunisia.

Over Spain, Mussolini's show of might was a direct reply to the action of Georges Mandel, French colonial minister, who ordered enlistment of 60,000 native troops in Tunisia.

Mandel's apparently bellicose action shocked Italy, but Italy's answer was quick and firm.

Report TVA Papers Stolen

WASHINGTON, May 19 (AP)—Senator Bridges (R.) of New Hampshire proposed today that the Senate post a $1000 reward for information leading to arrest and conviction of any person who has unlawfully entered Senate offices, stolen articles therefrom or mutilated office furnishings.

He said some papers relating to the Tennessee Valley Authority investigation in which he was interested were missing from his office and that several other Senators had complained of losing articles.

Drill Hits High Voltage Cable; 2 Near Death

Thrown 10 feet by a 3000-volt underground high tension cable when their compression drill accidentally struck it, two WPA laborers were in critical condition today at Cambridge City Hospital.

The men are John Miner, 41, of Walden street, Cambridge, and Dennis Carroll, 24, of Sixth street, East Cambridge.

According to the foreman, James Clark, they were drilling in a six-foot excavation in Norfolk street, Cambridge, when the tip of the drill contacted the exposed cable. Both men were gripping the drill.

They were hurled to the surface and sprawled on the pavement four feet from the excavation. Carroll was blackened by the shock and suffered cuts and abrasions.

At the hospital their names were placed on the danger list.

Girl Sees Leap From Cahill Office

Commenting to a stenographer that it was "a nice day but warm," Patrick J. Hunt, 44, of Neponset avenue, Roslindale, plunged 10 stories to his death today from the law offices of Cahill, Smith & Lynch, 11 Beacon street.

The Cahill of the firm is Speaker Horace T. Cahill of the House of Representatives.

Scores of pedestrians and motorists saw Hunt's body strike the street and Police Sergeant Daniel Donahue, known to thousands of fans at Braves Field, where he was stationed for years as a motorcycle officer, was nearly hit.

Hunt, a World War veteran and father of two children, lost his taxicab business in the South End several months ago, according to relatives, and since then had suffered a nervous breakdown.

Yesterday he was taken by his wife, Mrs. Dorothy C. Hunt, to the Veterans' Bureau and arrangements were begun to enter him for treatment.

Today Hunt slipped out of the house at 7 a. m., the relatives said, and telephoned his wife an hour later from Boston.

Cupid Goes on WPA

Hopkins to Wed Beautiful Widow

NEW YORK, May 19—In a romance of "love at first sight," WPA Administrator Harry L. Hopkins and Mrs. Dorothy Hale, beautiful New York widow and former Broadway actress, will soon announce their engagement, according to friends here. The friends said they understood the couple planned to be married in July.

First news in a New York society column today apparently took both Hopkins and Mrs. Hale by surprise for neither would discuss the matter. In Washington Hopkins made the following statement through his secretary:

"I'm always glad to discuss public matters with anyone, but when it comes to private and personal matters, I am disinclined to talk to anyone about them."

SON JIM AS "CUPID"

"Jimmy" Roosevelt, son and first secretary of the President, is responsible for their meeting, which took place only a few weeks ago at a party in New York. Since then Hopkins, who is a widower, has been seen a great deal in the company of Mrs. Hale, both in Washington and New York.

Mrs. Hale's late husband, Gardner Hale, an artist, was a great favorite of New York society. He was killed in 1931—two years after their marriage—when his motor car plunged over an embankment in California.

Grief-stricken, Mrs. Hale lived the life of a hermit for some time after the tragedy. Then she decided to embark on a career as an actress. She studied with a summer stock company and eventually made her debut on Broadway where she has appeared in several plays.

FATHER OF TWO

Mrs. Hale is 32. Hopkins is 48. Both have been married twice before. Mrs. Hale's first husband was T. Gillard Thomas, millionaire clubman.

Hopkins' second wife, the former Barbara Duncan, whom he married in 1931, died last year after a lingering illness. He has a son by his first marriage and a daughter by the second.

The WPA administrator was born in Sioux City, Ia.; has been engaged in welfare administration work since 1918, and became WPA administrator in 1935 after serving for two years as director of the New York State Temporary Emergency Relief Administration.

New Love—Mrs. Dorothy Hale, beautiful New York widow, and former actress, now leading lady in real-life "Love-at-First-Sight" romance. Her engagement to Harry L. Hopkins, WPA administrator, is expected to be announced soon. They met only recently.

Making Punishment Fit Club's Crime

Oh, the things inspectors for the Alcoholic Beverages Control Commission said about the Club Bagdad in Washington street, South End, a month ago!

They found liquor being sold to non-members, they said.

They testified they found liquor being sold to minors.

They told, on the witness stand, of witnessing immoral entertainment.

And, they said, there were other illegalities.

Today, the commission acted.

The Club Bagdad's license has been suspended for three days—May 23, 24 and 25.

Boy, Oh, Boy! Two-Bit Dates For Harvard!

ALL FOR TWO BITS—Alice Tibbatts and Lillian Travers consider the advantages (and obvious disadvantages) of Harvard's latest achievement—a date bureau for lonely freshmen. Lonely hearts now call Kirkland 7849, ask for blonde or brunette, wait, and pay two bits. Then all depends on whether said L. H. are lucky or unlucky.

Smiles replaced lonely frowns on the faces of Harvard's freshmen today as a dating bureau—the novel project of two undergrads—got into operation.

It seems that the frosh were worried about dates for the freshman jubilee, which is set for Saturday. The Boston girls, according to the founders of the bureau, were giving the cold shoulder to poor little Johnny Q. Jones of Podunk, Missouri, and such way stations.

Faced with complaints against unkind femininity, and expressions of fear that the jubilee, great event of the social year for frosh, would be held sans enough charmers, Julian A. Eisenstein of Warrenton, Mo., and Edward A. Herberich of Akron, O., rolled up their collegiate sleeves and tackled the problem.

Radcliffe and Wellesley students will be principal sources of feminine aid, according to the sponsors of the bureau. All one needs to do—so they say—is call Kirkland 7849, specify blonde or brunette, wait, and pay two bits for the privilege.

Between 75 and 100 "attractive partners" will be available for the great social event of the year, Eisenstein and Herberich said.

Increase Reward For Lost Child

BRADFORD, Pa., May 19 (AP)—

A committee of five citizens set out today to increase to $5000 the reward for the return of Marjory West, four-year-old daughter of an oil field worker, who disappeared May 8 while picking violets in the woods.

The city of Bradford previously had offered $1000; the American Legion $250, and the Bradford "Era," a newspaper, $250 in rewards.

'B. O.' Enlivens Gift Jobs Quiz

He was graduated with a degree of "B. O."

That was the admission before the joint legislative investigating committee today by Joseph D. Mawhinney, former city treasurer of Somerville, now assistant executive secretary of the unemployment compensation commission.

Mirth provoked by Mawhinney's answers to questions propounded by Attorney Warren Patten, counsel for the legislative committee, led Representative John F. Aspell, Democratic member of the committee, to remark acidly: "Evidently our counsel has turned comedian."

DELANEY WAITS CALL

Mawhinney explained that his "B. O." degree is that of "bachelor of oratory," conferred upon him, he said, by the State College of the Spoken Word.

"You were the chief of the speakers' bureau for Governor Hurley in the last campaign?" Attorney Patten asked.

Mawhinney admitted that he was.

Another Hurley aide on hand to testify, but not called during the forenoon session, was John Lacey Delaney.

Called a "mystery man" of the Hurley administration, Delaney "could not be found" by process servers yesterday, and Senator Angier L. Goodwin, chairman of the legislative committee, had announced contempt proceedings would be brought against him, and, even, that his arrest might be ordered, if he did not show up today.

WIFE GIVEN SUMMONS

A summons for Delaney's appearance was served on his wife last night.

Delaney appeared, smiling urbanely but giving no explanation of his yesterday's whereabouts. He was sworn in along with other witnesses.

street, Lawrence, a $1520-a-year superintendent of claims for the Unemployment Compensation Commission, was the first witness questioned.

He electrified the hearing by an admission that he is a funeral director and has been conducting funerals on the UCC's time. His latest time out for this purpose, he admitted, was yesterday forenoon.

Bateman made heavy weather of it on the witness stand and Attorney Samuel Weiner, associate counsel for the UCC, moved to assist him.

"I'm going to sit beside this witness to protect him—tell him how to answer," Weiner said.

SNAPS ANSWER

Attorney Patten flared up immediately.

"I object to counsel telling any witness how to answer," he declared.

Weiner apologized.

Mawhinney, who stated he lives on Walnut street, Somerville, took the stand with an obvious chip on his shoulder, scowling and snapping his answers back at Patten.

"You're not mad, are you?" Patten inquired pleasantly.

"I hope not," was Mawhinney's reply.

"You're quite an orator, I understand," Patten continued.

"After listening to you, I have no opinion."

QUIZZED ON BUSINESS

Patten sought to question Mawhinney as to whether the J. D. Mawhinney Company, of which he is president and treasurer and which deals in plumbing supplies, does or did business with the state. Also Patten asked:

"Are you the J. D. Mawhinney who is now being sued by a Boston bank for something like $15,000?"

"That's my personal business," Mawhinney replied, "and not within the scope of this inquiry."

Before becoming assistant executive secretary of the Unemployment Compensation Commission, Mawhinney stated, he was a $3000-a-year financial advisor for the WPA. His salary as city treasurer and collector of taxes in Somerville, he said, was $4500 a year.

Cocktails 'Smart'? Methodists Told 'No'

Hostesses who think they are "smartened up" because they serve cocktails are only deluding themselves, the 122nd New England Methodist Conference was told today at Lynn.

Many Methodist women are even included in the classification, it was asserted by Arthur J. Davis, secretary of the Massachusetts Anti-Saloon League.

"The women of today," he said, "for some reason or other and in order to be smart and up to the times, serve cocktails at most gatherings—even our Methodist women."

"It seems to be the prevailing impression that in order to be a smart hostess, one MUST serve cocktails."

"The future success of this democracy depends on the environment in the home—the example set for the children."

"I think that this conference would be doing a great thing if it could prevail on the Methodist women at least to get away from this cocktail serving, which, in reality, does not smarten up a hostess in the least.

"It is the children, the future generations, that we must think of."

Electric Eye Guards Books

Perfection of an electrical device to safeguard manuscripts and valuable books from theft was announced today by Thomas S. McCaleb, instructor in radio communication at Harvard Geographical Institute.

McCaleb, also the inventor of the electric eye to trap speeding motorists, said his new device would be demonstrated next week. So delicate is the electrical device that the approach of a thief within two feet of the shelves or cases holding books will immediately sound an alarm.

say good-bye," was the tenor of his message. "I'm sorry and I hope you won't think too hard of me."

"Don't do anything foolish," his wife cried, but Hunt had left the phone.

A short time later he walked into the suite occupied by the Cahill law firm on the 11th floor of the Lawyers' Building.

Only a girl stenographer, who told police she had seen him in the offices before but did not know his identity, was present.

Hunt made his comment on the weather and then, without waiting for a reply, walked into the office of David S. Smith, Fuller street, Brookline, a member of the firm.

A few seconds later, before the eyes of the horrified stenographer, he plunged from the window down into the canyon of Beacon street.

On Smith's desk the girl found a green felt hat, where the war veteran had left it.

Identification of the battered body was made at Northern Mortuary by Hyman Spellman, 21 Browning avenue, Dorchester, taxi driver who formerly worked for Hunt.

At the Hunt home, where the two children, June T. and Shirley, 4, barely realized their loss, it was said that Hunt was in the taxi business 12 years and was a pioneer in the ITOA.

He had expressed to his wife a fear of going to a hospital, and yesterday, while beside a window in the Veterans' Bureau, had remarked to her that "this would be an easy way out," according to relatives.

She told him, they said, not to be foolish and thought no more of the comment.

Revere Probe Summonses Given Dever

Velling their action in secrecy, representatives of Attorney-General Paul A. Dever's office today obtained summonses for an unannounced number of witnesses.

These will be called before a so-called "blue ribbon" grand jury, sitting Monday to probe alleged racketeering in Revere.

Meantime, a New England Watch and Ward Society agent was being questioned by Dever's investigators.

The agent, who stood ready to testify, charged that uniformed Revere police officers were on guard duty at wide-open horse race gambling rooms in the beach city.

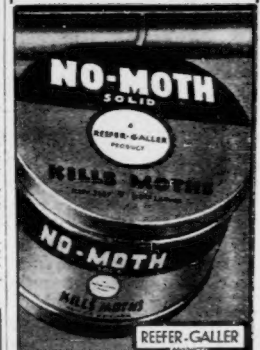

The agent said that two years ago while investigating Revere racketeers he was ushered at gunpoint from a betting parlor by two gunmen, who also had a uniformed policeman to back them up.

Propose N. H. Lift Catholic Teacher Ban

CONCORD, N. H., May 19 (AP)—Leaders in New Hampshire's Constitutional Convention disclosed today delegates were considering the advisability of admitting a resolution to eliminate a constitutional ban on Catholic teachers in public schools.

For 154 years the state constitution has said that communities should "make adequate provision for support and maintenance of public Protestant teachers of piety, religion and morality."

Several legislative attempts have been made to eliminate the word "Protestant," but without success. For years, however, many Catholic teachers have been employed in public schools.

Prof. Curtis H. Page, retired Dartmouth College instructor, already has conferred with former U. S. Senator George H. Moses, convention president, on the possibility of winning unanimous consent for introduction of the resolution.

Chelsea Cycle Officer Hurt

Swerving his speeding machine to avoid hitting a bystander, Motorcycle Officer Henry Whitten of the Chelsea police was knocked unconscious in a fall today.

He was taken home, where doctors found him to be suffering from injuries to the left hip, left leg and left side.

At the time of the accident Whitten was chasing an allegedly stolen auto along Broadway, Chelsea.

The bystander, Street Car Conductor Samuel Holbrook of Wicket street, Malden, was knocked down, but escaped with minor cuts and bruises.

Widow Who Slew Four Must Die

VIENNA, May 19 (AP)—Martha Marek, 44-year-old widow convicted of four murders, was sentenced today to death.

Prosecutor Otto Wotawa described the crippled, half-blind woman as a "human cobra who richly deserves the gallows." The sentence did not indicate the method of execution. This raised rumors that the guillotine soon might replace hanging in Austria.

Frau Marek was convicted of the murders of her husband, daughter, aunt and a woman boarder.

Babson Maps U. S. Prosperity

LENOX, May 19 (AP)—Calling the present recession "merely a pocket in the general forward movement," Roger Babson, economist, today outlined ten points he believed essential for the country's good.

He spoke at the northeastern district meeting of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

Babson claimed the fault lay in efforts to change human nature overnight, and said he would accomplish the following, if he were President of the United States:

- 1—Amend the security exchange act so reputable bankers would be safe in offering new issues, opening flood gates to new capital.
 - 2—Invest social security money in private industry instead of using it for government expenditure.
 - 3—Tell the truth to labor and sell to labor the idea that prosperity of labor depends on greater production.
 - 4—Attack monopolies of prices and wages; encourage competition and free trading.
 - 5—Continue the Roosevelt foreign policies; stay out of foreign alliances. Go along with Great Britain and build up armaments.
 - 6—Give federal relief only when it is matched by state and local.
 - 7—Develop new industries.
 - 8—Check habits of liquor and and gambling.
 - 9—Work for a coalition of Republican and Democratic forces in 1940.
 - 10—Pass the unemployment problem to churches and work for a spiritual revolution.
- The greatest need of the day, Babson declared, was the solution of the unemployment problem. For this he suggested "a spiritual reawakening" in which the churches, with their 50-odd million members, would take active interest.

Soule Becomes Navy Yard Head

Captain Charles C. Soule, chief of staff of the First Naval district, today became captain and executive officer of the Boston Navy Yard. He succeeds Captain Henry D. Cooke, who has been transferred to Philadelphia.

Rear Admiral Walter H. Gherardi, commandant of the Boston Navy Yard and the First Naval district for the past three years, will leave next month for Washington, where he will become president of the naval examining board. Vice-Admiral William T. Tarrant, commander of the scouting force of the fleet, now on the Pacific coast, will be the new commandant, assuming his duties about July 1.

Offers to Aid Hague Probe

NEWARK, N. J., May 19 (AP)—Henry Young, Jr., chairman of a State Assembly committee which sought to investigate Hudson county voting conditions, said today he would offer Attorney-General Cummings evidence that the "right of franchise was denied to thousands in Hudson county" in last November's gubernatorial election.

"I hope that the attorney-general will take the view that the wholesale alteration of ballots in Hudson county on November 2 last represents an abrogation of civil rights," young said, "and therefore is a proper matter for thorough investigation by the Department of Justice."

Cummings announced in Washington yesterday he had ordered a "thorough investigation" of complaints that civil rights had been suppressed in Jersey City, where Frank Hague is mayor.

Inquest Set On Death Crash Of Airliner

LOS ANGELES, May 19 (INS)

Inquest will be held Friday to determine the cause of the crash of a huge transport plane, in which nine persons, including four women and two children, were killed Monday.

"I am not satisfied that proper precautions were taken in handling the plane," Coroner Frank Nance stated. "I have talked to witnesses who said they saw the plane flying at an altitude of not more than 300 feet from the ground."

"Under those circumstances, I believe it proper for this office to hold an investigation."

The $50,000 Lockheed flying ship crashed into a rugged hillside 19 miles northeast of Saugus and was found yesterday.

No public hearings will be held by the Bureau of Air Commerce because the plane was not flying in regular passenger service, but local representatives will meet as an executive accident board late this week and make a report to Washington headquarters.

Assail Closing Of Libraries

Members of the South Boston Citizens' Association rose in protest today over the closing of public library branches in South Boston and three other districts.

Similar protests are expected to come from the Mt. Bowdoin, Roxbury Crossing and Tyler street sections. The closings were brought about as an economy measure by the library trustees but President Harry Bishop of the South Boston Association declared:

"It borders on a criminal act because it is a curtailment of education. In Red Russia the first institutions destroyed were the libraries, because Russian leaders are opposed to the education of the common people. We are not in Russia. South Boston will not tolerate this insult to its intelligence."

G-Men Smash Counterfeiters

The first crack in what federal agents said is a nation-wide counterfeiting ring extending into New England was made today when three men were arrested in New Jersey after a long auto chase.

The chase started following purchase of $45,000 in counterfeit bills by Treasury agents posing as bad-money passers.

Under arrest are David Krakaur, 34, Palisades, N. J.; Charles Blum, 30, and Irving Nitzberg, 28, both of the Bronx.

According to the Treasury department agents, under Supervisor James C. Maloney, the case first broke in San Antonio, Texas, last January, when one David Weiner was found with $3500 in counterfeit $10 bills.

By unrevealed means, the agents established contact with members of the ring near New York and learned of a national distributing system for counterfeit $5, $10 and $20 bills.

On March 21, the agents said, they successfully posed as passers and bought $3500 worth of bills from the three men now held, paying 11½ cents on the dollar.

The low price made the agents feel certain the counterfeiters were being produced in a large plant, but location of the plant has not yet been found.

Another meeting was arranged early today with Nitzberg near Fort Lee, N. J., through Krakaur and Blum.

Nitzberg appeared in a car, took $4000 and handed over the $45,000 in counterfeit bills, the agents charge. Krakaur and Blum were immediately arrested, but Nitzberg drove away.

He was captured after a chase over dark roads that led almost

Seeks Pen Experts In Forgery Case

On request of defense counsel for time to produce handwriting experts, Cornelius L. Horgan, 30, Wakefield Municipal Light Company foreman, was held in $300 today for continued appearance on June 3 in Malden court.

He is charged with larceny of $25.50 and forged endorsement of a check.

Horgan was arrested last week, after an alleged $500 shortage had been discovered in funds of the light company.

Wants to Climb Again

MOBILE, Ala., May 19 (AP)—Charles V. Gossett, 74-year-old steeplejack, fretted in a hospital today because he wasn't allowed to return at once to work, interrupted yesterday by a 40-foot fall from a smokestack.

"That was nothing," the grinning Gossett said, and then launched into a criticism of hospital rules that prevent him chewing tobacco.

3 Probes Open In Holbrook Auto Tragedy

HOLBROOK, May 19—A triple investigation was launched today to determine the cause of a crash between an automobile and a speeding New Haven train which snuffed out the lives of three Dorchester residents and critically injured two others.

The New Haven railroad, police and registry of motor vehicles simultaneously announced probes. The dead: Herbert A. McClure, 41, carpenter; his wife, Izetta, 38, and their daughter, Jean 3.

On the danger list at Brockton Hospital: Irene, 10, fractured skull and multiple cuts, and Warren, 11, head injuries and dislocated hip.

Reason: McClure drove round a curve at the South street crossing, went through a flashing warning signal and crashed into the side of a speeding locomotive. The car was carried 102 feet and so great was the impact that the license plate was punched back to the dashboard.

Franco Advance Again Delayed By Heavy Rains

HENDAYE, France (at the Spanish Frontier)—May 19 (AP)—Gen. Franco's insurgent advance in eastern Spain bogged again today under driving rainstorms and reinforced government resistance.

Warplanes were unable to leave their bases and heavy artillery being moved to the front sank deep in muddy mountain trails. The only success of importance reported by the insurgents was the capture of lofty Pinarroya peak, east of Teruel.

A Madrid dispatch said insurgent bombers raided Castellon de la Plana on the coast, but caused few casualties since most of the inhabitants fled to air raid shelters.

1st Rockefeller Twins Born

NEW YORK, May 19 (INS)—The first set of twins in the history of the Rockefeller family was born to Mrs. Nelson A. Rockefeller, wife of the grandson of the oil magnate.

The twins, a boy and a girl, have been named Michael and Joan. They weighed just under six pounds each at birth. Rockefeller, second son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and the former Mary Tobin Clark were married in 1930. They have three other children.

Ruling Reserved In Rea Will Fight

Judge John V. Phelan today studied evidence in the Salem court fight of Lawrence Mitchell of Grove street, West Medford, to break the will of Charles S. Rea, 99-year-old retired Salem bank president, who left almost his entire $1,000,000 fortune to James Young, Jr., of Salem, his successor in the bank.

Attorney James P. Roberts, counsel for Mitchell, cousin of Rea's, argued it was a "bad thing" the estate was left to "strangers." Attorney James W. Sullivan, who upheld the will, declared business ties are sometimes stronger than blood ties. Judge Phelan reserved decision.

A herd of cattle on the highway blocked his automobile near here. Hill shook hands and chatted with a cowboy, the first he ever saw in native habitat.

French Playwrights To Duel With Epees

PARIS, May 19 (AP)—Seconds for Henry Bernstein and Edouard

Bourdier, two of France's most noted playwrights, arranged today for the two to settle a long standing quarrel with epees shortly after dawn tomorrow.

It was agreed the duel would be held on a private estate, the location of which was kept secret. Bernstein, whom the seconds recognized as the offended party, chose epees, long pointed blades without cutting edges, and immediately began practice on the roof of his apartment house.

The quarrel was brought to a head by differences over production of Bernstein's play, "Judith." Bourdier is director of the comedie Francaise.

91,000 Live In Chicago on Food Tickets

CHICAGO, May 19 (AP)—Food tickets good for a limited supply of rations were the main protection against starvation today for 91,000 persons caught in Chicago's relief crisis.

Funds for May relief checks ran out after 170,000 persons had been paid, leaving 34,000 families dependent upon foodstuffs furnished by the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation.

The rations, which heretofore supplanted cash relief, consisted of beans, butter, cabbage, celery, oranges and rice. Milk was available only for children.

All of the city's relief stations were closed except for emergency services because of an empty treasury. The closing brought out pickets bearing placards reading, "Soak the Rich and Feed the Poor" and "Don't Starve, Fight."

Relief officials looked to the special session of the Legislature tomorrow for aid.

Ohio Solons Hear Cleveland Chief

CLEVELAND, May 19 (AP)—State legislators burrowed deeper into a welter of municipal relief data today after hearing from City Relief Commissioner Frank E. Bubna that half the heads of destitute Cleveland families are unemployed.

About 150 "reliefers" entered the third day of a sit-down protest in the city council chamber.

2 NO WEAR, NO COSTLY REPAIRS!

We told me the reason Servel Electrolux never makes a noise—and why it never needs costly repairs, either. A tiny gear inside does the work without friction or wear, without a single moving part. Right then and there, I decided that the gas refrigerator was the refrigerator for me.

3 RUNS FOR SO LITTLE!

At the showroom where we bought ours, I learned a lot of other things about Servel Electrolux I never knew before. For example... it costs only a few cents a day to run—and this cost can never be increased through the inefficiency of worn or working parts. What's more, your gas company stands behind it.

The highway is the famous road which Mussolini entered in Libya last year.

Mussolini has sent troops from a post near Tunisia. The start of the troops was toward a strategic point for France in the defensive capacity of movement.

DUCES DEFERENCE. Mussolini's troops were admitted to the army was meant to show France that Italy could easily do a crushing blow against French battle African colonies.

Newspapers stressed that the 100-mile dash was nothing less than a show of force.

The French-Italian crisis, threat ening the collapse of Rome-Paris friendship, took into the open Saturday when Mussolini, in a speech at Genoa, emphasized that France favored the payment in Spain and Italy the in-Surrender.

Orders for the Italian troops were moved from the eastern to the western frontier of Italy to engage in maneuvers.

KING TO GO THERE

The war planes so close to French territory will be witnessed by King Victor Emmanuel who will leave tomorrow for his first visit to Tripoli for a long time.

Yet it was obvious the shift resulted immediately from the French military ministry's move.

The Italian press today denied an attacking campaign, continuing French arms shipments to government Spain.

If Britain was expressed, Chamberlain's offering up more colonial troops just when Italy was demobilizing her Italian forces in accordance with the Italian-British agreement.

France Warns Italy She'll Defend Border

PARIS, May 19 (AP)—Premier Edouard Daladier today declared that France would defend her frontiers against any attack by Italy.

The statement was delivered after a meeting of the cabinet in which the French government decided to take no further action.

Britain Goes After Nazi Friendship

VISCOUNT HALIFAX
Woods Germany

LONDON, May 19 (AP)—The British Government clearly and specifically has made an approach to Germany a primary objective of its foreign policy.

There had been indications of a move for German friendship during negotiations for the peace with Italy which was signed April 10, but it is reported for Foreign Secretary, Viscount Halifax, to move the distance.

Viscount Halifax, British Foreign Secretary, today declared that Britain would seek a friendly relationship with Germany.

"We believe that by our Italian agreement we have made a beginning and we are resolved to seek every possibility of developing that action."

"Highly as we value our existing friendships and intimate as we do not regard them as by any means exclusive, and while strengthening them we seek all ways to increase their number and extend their scope."

"We should, for example, like to see removed all causes of mistrust and suspicion that may be in the way of complete understanding between ourselves and Germany."

"That desire is shared. I believe, by the mass of people in both countries."

Parents Defy Lash for Boys

FITCHBURG, May 19—Spare the rod and spoil the child was an axiom of parents in the old days.

but today, two modern parents defied Judge Thomas F. Clougher, who ordered an old-fashioned horsewhipping for two boys accused of stealing wire from the Boston & Maine Railroad signal system, endangering the lives of passengers and crews of trains.

MOTHER HITS COURT

Mrs. Joseph Allen, mother of 10 other children besides William, one of the boys, spoke for both families today in condemning the court as "uncivilized." "It is not civilized to whip people," she declared. "We have no right to do things like that to a dog."

Mrs. Allen likened the court's order to slave treatment and pig treatment against the innocent boys.

The main support in her household, she said, was an older son making $10 a week. "We would try to squeeze a dollar out of that each week to pay for the damage," the mother declared.

"I will follow any legal sentence but not whips," said Harry Woodworth, father of Harold, 16, one of the youths.

"That punishment is too much."

Sentenced to Be Whipped

I'll punish him but it will be my own way. I think horsewhipping a boy is wrong.

"I realize the seriousness of what he did, but he doesn't. I'll teach him that too, so he won't forget."

The boys were ordered by Theodore A. Lathrop, federal secretary of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, who declared such a sentence deserved "a severe condemnation."

"It is a relic of the old days," said Lathrop. "A horsewhipping with all the humiliation, physical pain and the resentment it would arouse in a boy is likely to build up enmity and would have a harmful effect upon him."

Judge Clougher nearly 20 years ago established the only horsewhipping sentence prevalent in this city.

Veteran members of the police department recalled that nearly 20 years ago Judge Clougher sentenced two youths accused of throwing stones at a train to be whipped. They are now reputable citizens.

Roosevelt Cruise Ship Has Leak

PHILADELPHIA, May 19 (AP)—The navy's new cruiser Philadelphia would scarcely be called perfect if it had not on a Friday lost up to 100 tons of the heavy fuel for engines.

Engineers on the ship said that the leak was caused by a small hole which permit fuel water to get into one of the steam engines but not into the other. The ship's cruise

Jurors Told Of Havoc From Dope Traffic

Presenting a grim word picture of the human traffic wrought by the dope traffic in New England, Assistant United States Attorney William T. McCarthy, in federal court announced today, asked conviction of seven alleged "narcotic ring" conspirators.

The last witness, that no praver duty faces citizens than that of stamping out "the underworld's most profitable business" that of selling and using narcotics.

McCarthy said that the jury should not dip into a cesspool without taking off your white kid gloves. He had to get at the bottom of a cesspool.

After McCarthy's argument and the judge's charge, the case was expected to go to the jury later in the day.

Still on trial today were seven defendants, all charged with conspiracy to violate federal anti-narcotic laws.

Of 11 previous cases only indicted, after government probe of an alleged $2,000,000 New York Eastern dope ring, six have ended guilty pleas. One was ruled out by a directed verdict, and the case of another was not pressed.

Ford Files New Labor Case Plea

COVINGTON, Ky., May 18 (INS)—The Ford Motor Company today filed two motions in its sixth circuit court of appeals, asking permission to amend its petition for review of National Labor Relations Board ruling against Ford and to have depositions from NLRB officials.

The first Ford motion asked amendments in the Ford petition of May 4, under which the case is to be heard by the court June 10. The request for depositions from NLRB officials was asked on the following charges:

That the company was denied a fair hearing; that Ford was influenced by political considerations; that the board consulted improperly with persons not on its own staff; and that the board permitted its initial functions to be influenced by its prosecution functions.

'Eye Baby' Again Faced By Death

CHICAGO, May 19 (INS)—Baby Helaine Colan, the infant whose life was thought to have been spared nine days ago when her left eye was removed to halt the spread of glioma, a deadly cancerous growth, may die, a jury of physicians announced today.

The medical experts revealed that they fear metastasis—a concomitant of malignant tumors in which the affliction for unknown reasons shifts from one place to another—has involved the baby's lower brain far along the optic nerve.

If their belief proved correct, baby Helaine would die. No operation could save her.

Today's decision blasted the hope which grew from the surgery nine days ago, which was decreed by a "supreme court" of physicians and spiritual advisers.

The "supreme court" was given the final say by the infant's parents, who could not themselves decide whether they wanted their baby to be operated upon.

The question facing the parents at that time was: Permit the removal of Helaine's left eye, already blinded by the glioma, or "let nature take its course," in which case, the scientists said, the babe would die.

The "supreme court" voted for the operation, and the left eye was removed. When Helaine seemed to react favorably to the incision, hope grew that her right eye, only partly affected by the tumor, might be saved.

Breaks Neck Again, But That Isn't All

PLATTSBURGH, N. Y., May 19 (AP)—Moss Lewis, 26, of nearby Morrisville, is suffering his second fractured neck, but that isn't half of it.

Injured in an automobile accident in which another man died, Lewis also has several fractured ribs.

And the physician added, a check revealed that Lewis fractured his neck 25 years ago, broke a leg when only 12 years of age, fractured a wrist several years later and fractured his skull a few years ago.

Anton Lang Dead; Led Passion Plays

OHERRAMMERGAU, Germany. May 19 (AP)—This Alpine village, known the world over for its Passion Plays, today mourned the loss of its most famous character, 63-year-old Anton Lang, impersonator of Christ from 1900 to 1930.

Who Won the War?

The Editor Says: The cartoon, admirably drawn, shows the horror of real war. The mother weeping over the dead body of her child is hardly an exaggeration. Thousands of mothers weep over the dead bodies of children in the battle-torn countries of Europe and Asia.

You cannot imagine one of these bereaved women standing up, brushing her eyes and asking: "WHO WON?"

But in New England no imagination is required. Five days of M. K. warlike conduct in this area, overblows asks: "WHO WON?"

That is the difference who been playing at war and actually experiencing it.

And yet, unfortunately, the military experts who witnessed the machine gun fighting along our coast and over our inland cities, seem almost to ask: WHO WON and WHO DID NOT WIN.

Apparently, they know only that their ideal deference has met a certain number of clouds above our heads and have us an unending series of theoretical combat.

Still, peace cannot continue, certainly not if we wish to preserve our peace and security in this bayonet-bristling world.

OUR ARMY, NAVY AND AERIAL DEFENSES SHOULD BE SO POWERFUL THAT EVERY OBSERVER OF MILITARY MANEUVERS WOULD BE ABSOLUTELY SURE THAT NO NATION NOT EVEN THE STRONGEST AND MOST AGGRESSIVE COULD INVADE AND DESTROY AMERICA.

Disasters repeat, make in a synthetic war. Never in the genuine attack, flying ships, scattering steel and killing gas do not wait in mid-air for vacillating minds to seek shelter.

JOBS FOR 4000 men are assured at Fore River Shipyard in Quincy, where the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Company plans to begin work on four steel cargo vessels for the American Export Lines. This is the best news of the week.

Hopefully now we look forward to the time when we can announce work for at least 8000 men. With millions appropriated for battleships and Merchant Marine replacements badly needed, prosperity in the shipbuilding industry seems more than likely.

Cause for regret, however, is the fact that Senators and Representatives in Washington continue to heed the "advice" of Secretary of Labor Perkins. Infinitely wiser would be a little more attention to the sound wisdom of Ambassador Kennedy.

In Congress accepted his recommendations, the Merchant Marine's future would end and the many new vessels that ought to be built in New England would be built.

TARIFF HEADACHES are unnecessary, according to Congressman A. M. Fox who comes here from Washington to the Boston Chamber of Commerce. He claims New England for shipbuilding and ship repair. He has negotiated with foreign countries. He says that high tariffs mean high wages.

He says that if we could not get these things, we should have more of them. He says that if we could not get these things, we should have more of them.

He says that if we could not get these things, we should have more of them. He says that if we could not get these things, we should have more of them.

He says that if we could not get these things, we should have more of them. He says that if we could not get these things, we should have more of them.

The Political Parade

By GEORGE ROTHWELL BROWN

WASHINGTON, May 19.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT once made a solemn promise to the Congress of the United States and to the American people which if he should keep it even at the late date might cause the sun of prosperity to shine over this discontented nation another month.

He said in effect that if he were to discover that he had made a mistake he would be the first to acknowledge it.

Many have been the mistakes Mr. Roosevelt has made since then. But he has never confessed an error.

HIS LAST press conference was the most disconcerting moment of any since the famous talk against the Supreme Court in the NRA case.

It revealed the President as a fairly honest man, but a fairly poor view of what is happening in the country today, and in spite of this, for the reason that he may be wrong.

It is all the more reassuring since this unwillingness to face the facts pervades a majority of the Congress.

In the one place in America where it is most essential that there should be an intellectual comprehension of the gravity of the current situation, at the capital of the Republic, there is today every evidence that the men and women who make the laws are not even within groping distance of the truth.

With the exception of the tax bill in which the soundness of the cause, if President Roosevelt tipped the scales against the unsound policy of Mr. Roosevelt, Congressmen repudiated none of the various laws whose presence upon the statute books is practically wholly responsible for the Roosevelt plan.

MR. ROOSEVELT within a week has done that past juggling was a failure.

Yet the failure of juggling was merely recognized by Mr. Roosevelt's own No. 1 brain trusters. They move four years ago.

Three months ago not ten men in the House could have been found who of their own volition would have proposed another five-billion dollar spending spree.

That new economic spending job, as being to the best available extraneous evidence, was detailed upon the President's radio address, on the train en route from Warm Springs to Washington a few weeks ago.

The dazzling prospect of another Congressional campaign financed on borrowed billions from the Treasury deficit, converted a majority of Congress almost overnight to the President's fatal psychology.

What of Today, Tomorrow?

Jobs Await Students, P. A. O'Connell Says

Chiefly concerned now are New England college graduates of 1938 with one big question: Where Can I Get a Job?

What then is the prospect of this question being answered and how best it to answer it?

There is much better equipped to answer this than P. A. O'Connell, well noted Boston merchant and state agent of his experience in New England's commercial life.

By PAUL WHELTON
Boston Evening American Staff Writer

For these college men and women who wait here upon graduation next month, who understand that a job really means—and who are willing to adapt themselves actively to the problem of finding positions, there are jobs waiting NOW.

Thus, encouragingly, says P. A. O'Connell, president of Boston's E. T. Sutter Company and an eminently known merchant, speak of the outlook for New England's College Class of 1939.

"THERE ARE AT THIS MOMENT AS MANY OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOUNG PEOPLE OF THE RIGHT TRAINING AND RESOURCEFULNESS AS I HAVE KNOWN AT ANY TIME IN A BUSINESS LIFE OF MORE THAN 15 YEARS," he said.

Girl About Town by Marjorie McBride

A few professors take up ancient history or archaeology in their spare moments, but most of them have hobbies more understandable to the rest of us.

Professor Robert Hamilton of Northeastern University and Mrs. Hamilton, are experts in the modern dance, and show up the youngsters when they attend the affairs presented by the modern dance group.

Dr. Lee Bowen, professor of English at Boston College and formerly of Johns Hopkins, has taken up over the top and under the bottom of the modern dance.

Dr. J. E. X. Murphy, S. J. of B. C. has taken up the study of the modern dance, even when he isn't away from a classroom.

Professor Melville Munroe of Tufts is a student of the modern dance, and will be in for some homecoming to get his picture.

Eastern University has several other professors of the modern dance. Professor Warren Lowndes makes maps and manufactures, creating a modern map and atlas by hand.

BETTY ALDEN

On Beacon Hill

By BETTY ALDEN

MANY GARDEN LOVERS returned home from Milton yesterday tired and dusty . . . but contented . . . for they had tramped miles of gravel paths to see some of the loveliest gardens and show places in the town, opened under the sponsorship of the Milton Garden Club . . . Some must have returned to hotels or even climbed aboard trains, for one gate keeper who made a note of where every visitor was from, reported tons that garden lovers from Georgia, New York and all the New England states were represented in the group who came to admire the beautiful landscaping of and views of the Blue Hills . . .

The damp, rainy weather of the past few weeks may have been troublesome to us city folks, but the constant moisture brought plants into a much more luxuriant bloom than is usual at this time of year, and since Old Sol smiled on yesterday's proceedings, the gardens presented a feast of beauty . . .

At Mrs. Carleton Richmond's where many started their pilgrimage, Mrs. George Megrew and her daughter, Jane, stopped to chat with the hostess' daughter, Mrs. Robert W. Ladd, who guided visitors through the small enclosed gardens which lead to the vast rolling lawns laden with flowering shrubs . . . Mrs. Arthur Brooks lingered a long while in this lovely spot before going on to Mrs. Philip Spalding's estate, where a wild flower garden grows luxuriantly in the shade of a grove of trees . . .

Priscilla Page Potter, Mrs. Frederick Houghton and Mrs. John Grandin were in the throng visiting Mrs. Geoffrey Whitney's famous estate, where they walked around a small, mirror-like artificial lake to follow the meanderings of an industrious little brook which winds through a rustic acre or two . . .

Other attractive estates offering their own particular charms for visitors to enjoy were those of Mrs. Charles Clifford, Mrs. Frank Ross, Mrs. Charles W. Whittier, Mrs. Malcolm Donald and Mrs. J. Edward Brooks, whose daughter, Susan, helped her great garden lovers . . .

Mrs. John W. Myers Entertains

BUSINESS BEFORE PLEASURE is the motto of the Boston Morning Musicales committee . . . who've made all their plans for next winter's series of concerts . . .

As a final filp to the past season . . . and a pre-view of next . . . the committee met for its annual spring luncheon yesterday at the lovely Westwood home of Mrs. John W. Myers, who has sagaciously chartered the group during the concert's ten years of existence . . .

Informality was the keynote of the party . . . with Mrs. Myers holding court in her lovely enclosed garden before taking her guests into the house for a buffet luncheon . . . The hostess tucked a cluster of lilies of the valley in the belt of her blue and white print and graciously thanked her committee for their help and cooperation in various jobs throughout the year . . .

Mrs. H. Parker Whittington, co-chairman, chalked up another success as mistress of ceremonies . . . introducing the newest member, Mrs. Carl Dreyfus, and calling on various others to make their little speeches . . .

Dedham Prepares for Horse Show

The actual competition of equine thoroughbreds in the show ring will by no means complete the activities of the Dedham Horse Show annual event staged at the Dedham Country and Polo Club Memorial Day weekend.

Heavy hostesses are planning parties to precede the Horse Show Ball on Saturday evening, May 28, and luncheons are being arranged to entertain out of town guests between the morning and afternoon classes on both days, May 29 and 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Child will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Dean Bedford of Fox Hill Farm, Falmouth, Massachusetts, who are coming on to give prizes. Mrs. Bedford is expected to judge the children's classes and Mr. Bedford the horses. On Sunday, the Childs and Mr. and Mrs. Bedford will be guests of honor at a luncheon given by Mr. and Mrs. James Backus of Westwood. Other guests on this occasion will be Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lombard and Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Rose.

Exhibitors include practically every local breeder of horses, as well as an array of bachelors, such as Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Saltonstall of Sherborn, the Edwin H. Childs of Dedham, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hunnewell, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wendell Frost, Mr. and Mrs. Constantine Hutchins, the John C. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin King, Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan Sargent, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Pinkerton, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Leith, and Mr. and Mrs. Waldo C. Holdgren.

Tasha Tudor Weds May 28

Tasha Tudor, daughter of Mrs. Beaumont Tudor, of Boston and Redding, Conn. Ct., has selected Saturday, May 28, as the date of her marriage to Thos. MacLinton Montgomery, Jr. of New York and London.

The wedding will be an informal country affair, with dancing on the lawn following the wedding breakfast and an old-time fiddler playing the wedding march.

The prospective bride, feature singer in recent Vincent Club season, is the daughter of Starling Burgess, well-known Boston ship owner. She will be attended by Leonard Melleson as maid of honor and little Cordie Higginson, her niece, will be flower girl. Henry Lee Higginson, stepbrother of the bride, will serve as best man.

Frederick Tudor of Milton, who married the former Polly Cushman, is the brother of the bride. Tasha was educated at the Winsor School and studied at the Museum of Fine Arts.

Horse Group Meets Tonight

A real get-together of horse enthusiasts will be held this evening at the Hotel Puntan. Arthur Henry, owner of Weld Stock Farm, is organizing the event, with Marguerite Young, well-known equestrienne, directing the ticket sale.

Also serving on the committee are Mrs. Eleanor Young Ditmars and Allen New of West Roxbury.

VISITING IN NEW YORK

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Herrick and Mrs. M. Russell Perkins of Milton are enjoying a brief stay in New York, where they are registered at the Biltmore. Admiral and Mrs. Richard S. Byrd and Mrs. Arthur Blood of Swampscott are also at the Biltmore.

Somerville Club to Install Officers

Lillian O'Neill of Somerville will assume the duties of president of the Junior Summer in Western Catholic Club at the installation of officers Sunday afternoon at Knights of Columbus building. Chairman of the day is Kenneth Shanahan. Task of installing new officers has been detailed to Mrs. Charles E. Morgan. Others chosen to assume leadership are Frances Hayes and Elizabeth O'Leary, vice president, with Elizabeth Brennan, Anne Higgins and Margaret Collier sharing responsibilities as secretaries.

Board of directors will include Gertrude McKenna, Marion Reardon, Rosemary O'Neill, Alice Maroney, Frances Blute, Mary Logan, Margaret Kane, Helen Maguire. Aida M. V. assume the task of door-keeping with Hepe Dunn acting as custodian.

Hostesses for the meeting will include Regina Durant, Mary Cavanaugh, Edna Swift and Alice Fontaine.

All the club is agog with interest over plans for the final event of the year, a supper dance at the New Garden House, Swampscott, on May 27. Alice Hay is enterprising chairman of the event.

Emmanuel Grads Feted

Mary L. Dunn of Jamaica Plain, a prominent member of Emmanuel alumnae and Property Club, entertained at dinner at the club in honor of a group of her classmates. The informal party was folloyed with dancing at the Ritz Roof.

The evening's festivity was a slim, well-fitting frock of navy lace. V. V. Anne, Laurent of Jamaica Plain, wore a blue ensemble with a white collar. Helen Felony of Cambridge wore blue wool dress with white collar.

Others at the informal association were Mary Duns of Belmont in a severe black tulle, Kay Hendricks in a black peasant costume of dark blue crepe heavily embroidered, and Isabella Maguire.

Mt. St. Mary Grads to Meet

Massachusetts graduates of Mt. St. Mary College in Haverhill, N. H., will gather for luncheon and to elect officers Saturday at the Mount St. Mary Hotel.

$100,000 in Purse
For Garden Winner

Casey, Robert in Fortune Try

By JACK CONWAY

THE WINNER of the world's heavyweight championship wrestling bout between Steve Casey and Yvon Robert will earn $400,000 during the next year . . . A champion recognized in all parts of the United States can easily draw $1,000,000 within a period of twelve months . . . Casey has the title claims formerly held by Everett Marshall, while Robert is still recognized as champion in New England and in Canada despite the silly ruling of the American Wrestling Association that attempted to strip him of his mat crown. If the proposed mixed bout between the winner of tonight's mat battle and the victor of the Louis-Schmeling tussle materializes it will mean a fortune for the principals . . . Such a tussle would draw $1,000,000 and the wrestler and the boxer would each pull down $300,000 . . . With so much at stake, Casey and Robert will each strive their hardest to leave the ring a victor tonight.

Mr. Boston

Strangler Lewis made more money than any other wrestler . . . The Stranger was top man in the heavyweight division for a dozen years . . . Next to Lewis, Gus Sonnenberg earned more money than any grappler . . . The former Dartmouth hero made his money within a short period of time . . . He drew more than $2,000,000 at the gate in a period of two years . . . The $72,000 gate for the Sonnenberg-Lewis bout at the Garden still holds the gate receipts record for a wrestling match in Boston . . . Sonnenberg is in Australia, where he is wrestling for ordinary purses . . . He lost most of his fortune in poor silver and oil investments . . . Lewis is in California, where he is conducting a restaurant.

Dan O'Mahony another great money maker in the wrestling game and a former world champion, will be on tonight's card. Darnold, team with Mattison, brother of Yvon . . . O'Mahony still has a tremendous reputation as the incarnation of the American prize fighter. He will get a good battle of Robert's former class. A tussle between Robert and O'Mahony would be a natural and the Irishman would have a chance of regaining his lost title.

Tony Galento Another Willie Meehan

TONY GALENTO, the Newark tavern keeper, who skyrocketed himself out front in the heavyweight division when he knocked out Nathan Martin in two minutes, is in some respects like Willie Meehan who was James Dempsey's tag man. Meehan, like Galento, was a man who was known for his power and his ability to knock out his opponent in a short time. McCoy Signs for Montreal Bout

AL MCCOY has signed to meet Hans Havertell, Hungarian heavyweight champion, in a scheduled bout in Montreal on June 6. Montreal promoter and boxing agent, a Mr. F. E. Smith, who is also a manager, has secured McCoy for the match. McCoy, who was known for his power and his ability to knock out his opponent in a short time, is in some respects like Willie Meehan who was James Dempsey's tag man.

The Princess Baba will receive almost as much attention at the Garden tonight as will Steve Casey and Yvon Robert. The Princess will be in the royal box as Bob Gregory, her brother-in-law, meets Art Greenman in a special bout. It will be Gregory's first mat appearance in Boston. When he last showed here it was as referee of the Casey-Robert bout that was won by the Irishman.

Canadian May Lift Crown

By MURRAY KRAMER

With little fantasy and in his own real battle, the woman's state tennis championship will now be fought at the Garden. In quiet fashion this battle for state honors is setting down to one of the most spirited affairs in the history of the tournament, with nobody willing to venture a guess as to the ultimate winner.

Mrs. Maynard M. Johnson, formerly Virginia Rice, is the defending champion and is seeded No. 1. Kay Winthrop, one of the four players in this section is seeded No. 2.

Mrs. Johnson and Miss Winthrop, however, are not going to stop into the finals without a great deal of trouble from the other players. Elizabeth Galt, who is seeded No. 3, and Miss D. E. Cameron, who is seeded No. 4, are the other two players in this section.

In fact, Mrs. Cameron may upset the entire preliminary round by winning the championship. She is a former top player and has played in the Dominion of Canada and a few years ago won the championship of Scotland.

That is the first time she has competed for the state title and her experience against her. Mrs. Johnson and Miss Winthrop are the other two players in this section. They are the other two players in this section.

THE JEEP'S STILL AT IT

Jim Turner was pestered when "Jeep" Handley slapped his second service into the left field stands, yesterday, for a home run. "Pappy" saw "Jeep" hit five of "Maw" Pettie's offerings for two singles, a two bagger, hoist one against the left fence which Johnny Conney grabbed sensationally, and smash one through "Rabbit" Warstler in Pittsburgh. And he was in a rather the following afternoon when "Jeep" got "four for five" off Danny MacFadden and Billy Weir. All Shoffner is the only Red pitcher who has stopped "Jeep" this season. — Vince D.

Babe Didrikson

Maggie thinks less of "Jeep" than of any of "Old time" hurlers, for the clever little Pirate third sacker has robbed him of no less than four hits in as many games. Babe Didrikson sent Mrs. Warren Beard a set of clubs, and the estate champion is hitting the ball yards farther than at any time in her career. If you're going out and get the best, get the best, is Mrs. Jim Kimball's motto. — Vince D.

PIRATE SLUGGERS SILENCED

Bee Twirlers Fashion Mound Masterpieces

By WALTER KILEY.

Whether Boston has been privileged to view masterpieces of pitching efforts since the Bees returned to the home stadium, or whether their Pittsburgh foomen, as well as the Bees, are just pitifully inept with the willow, remains a matter of deep conjecture. Certain it is—and strangely in comparison with the mighty bludgeoning of the Red Sox in their winning streak at Fenway—honest-to-goodness sucking has been at a premium at National League Field. However, it would appear that the Bees' winning pitchers, Shoffner and Turner, were well deserving, for the Pirates have been long heralded as a team of heavy hitters.

The Bees, on the other hand, except for a brief flurry at Brooklyn, have never given indication of being any great shakes at the art of mauling.

Manager Harold "Pie" Traynor is confident his Bees will still snap out of the doldrums and make the high flying Giants step for pennant honors.

Perhaps they will. But the fact remains that the Pirates have looked pathetic against the Bees. They collected three hits off Shoffner in nine innings, losing 1-0; and five more in 14 innings off Jim Turner, losing 2-1.

Acquisition Of Vosmik Ten Strike

This is fifth in a series of daily articles written EXCLUSIVELY for the Boston Evening American by Jimmy Foxx, heavy-hitting Red Sox first baseman on the new Red Sox, American League leaders, and written just previous to the club's departure for the West.

By JIMMY FOXX

As told to Walter Kiley

If there's any outfield trio in the American League better than Joe Vosmik, Roger Cramer and Ben Chapman of the Red Sox I'd like to know it.

The only outfield which comes close to ours is the Yankees, and that largely because of Joe DiMaggio.

Acquisition of Vosmik from St. Louis has made a tremendous improvement in our defense.

His arm is powerful, and his ability at the bat adds a terrific wallop to the head of our batting order.

Cramer, to my mind, is one of the greatest players in the game. I rate him and Joe DiMaggio a toss-up in comparing them as fielders.

And I make this statement in full realization that the Yankee centerfielder boasts the greatest arm I've ever seen in baseball.

Chapman gets in trouble occasionally with his scrappy disposition, but that's not a bad fault.

It shows he's in the frame every minute and trying. A ball player with plenty of spunk will often keep a losing team fighting through to a winning finish.

Ben is smart, too, as good a fielder as you could wish, boards a fine throwing arm, and delivers hits runs.

Further, he is probably the best base runner in the league, an art which sometimes seems lost in this modern day and age, what with the craze for home run clouting.

TWO FOR DI MAG

ST. LOUIS, May 19 (INS)—Outfielder Joe DiMaggio hit his fifth and sixth home runs of the season to lead the New York Yankees to 11 to 7 victory over the Browns.

Further, he is probably the best base runner in the league, an art which sometimes seems lost in this modern day and age, what with the craze for home run clouting.

Bob Grove Writes Baseball History

Cunning Replaces Speed

By Associated Press.
Robert Moss Grove, with his lean left arm, is writing another brilliant chapter in a story which already ranks as one of the greatest in baseball's 100-year-old collection of diamond romances.

"Ol' Moss is almost 40 years old. His way has been streaked with gray. Long ago, it would seem, has the elasticity of youth departed from his spindly legs, and no longer does that left arm fire the fast ball which once made batters flinch.

SIX STRAIGHT
Yet, today Grove is very much a part of baseball's annual picture. In seven game appearances, he has won six victories and lost no games. He has pitched 90 innings, allowed an average of only two earned runs per game, granted only 21 bases on balls and struck out 33 batters. Ol' Moss is giving restless time a good beating.

Grove won his 33rd triumph in 14 years in the major the other day, and should he win another game he'll go down as one of the greatest left-handed pitchers in the sport's history.

In 1923 he came to the Philadelphia Athletics from Baltimore, bearing a $100,000 price tag—and since then he's made that price tag look like a bargain counter snap-up. For seven straight years, 1924 through 1931, he led the league in strikeouts. For eight years he paced every pitched in earned runs.

ALL-TIME RECORD
He won 28 and lost five in 1930 and fanned 214 batters, the greatest streakout feat of his career. Four times he took the win and lost crown and his mark of 31 wins and four defeats in 1931 stands as all-time major league high for efficiency percentage.

Eight times he has won 20 or more games in one season and in 1933 he won 24 and lost only eight games for the Athletics. He pitched the Athletics to three straight flags in 1929, 1930 and 1931 and to a pair of world titles.

Gone now is his old fireball. Instead, Ol' Moss pitches slowly and with the cunning gained from the years. His curve is "setting 'em down" now instead of his "smoke." But he's still the same Robert Moss Grove. He's still the fellow behind that short line that still is making the box scores: "Winning pitcher . . . Grove."

Roslindale Nine Faces Saints

Roslindale Town Club's and St. Augustine, both winners of their last two games, will provide the feature of the six-game card tonight in the Boston Park League at Healy field, Roslindale.

Before the home fans Tuesday night, the Townies gave the Hyde Park Tribunes their initial setback. They will send either Pinkham or Camaretta to the hill against Bill Benson's Southie nine tonight.

The McDonough club, boasting a three-game winning streak and a tie for top place in the east section, will visit Garvey field, Neponset, to meet Dick Casey's champs.

Johnny Delong has finally got the Holy Name club settled down, and their two wins over the Civics this week give them impetus as they face the Agnew club at Cleveland Circle.

The Mass. Knitting outfit, the only unbeaten club in the 12-team circuit, figures to breeze along at the expense of the Brighton Clives at Fens stadium, although Bobby Rich may check them.

St. Ambrose goes to Hyde Park and Maddens and Wilsons contend at Robegs field, Dorchester, to round out the after-supper menu.

Master Minding Hurts Henry's Chances With Ross

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK, May 19 (AP).—So many daffy things are going on out at Henry Armstrong's training compound that this avant, for one, begs to change his mind and not care a nickel's worth for Henry's Ross a week from tonight.

The furious little featherweight champion is bewildered by the silly surroundings at Pompton Lakes, N. J., and overtrained. Furthermore, his advisers are trying to teach Henry how to outsmart Barney Ross, instead of simply whipping him, and that is the funniest thing to happen in a long time. The current odds, 8 to 5 in Ross' favor, are about right.

They made a big mistake in taking Armstrong out to a genuine training camp, where there were trees and flowers and chickens. Previously, in some eight years of campaigning, the hustling Henry had done all the training he felt was necessary in mid-town gymnasiums where there was cigar smoke in the air and blobs of chewing gum on the floor.

All the greenery and fresh air at Pompton Lakes got him going, and the little Negro worked entirely too hard. There wasn't anything else to do. So now, with a

Helen Advances In Court Tilt

SURBITON, England, May 19 (AP).—Helen Wills Moody angrily denied rumors of a new romance to day and then went out and beat Mrs. M. R. King, 6-2, 7-5, in the quarter-final round of the Surbiton tennis tournament.

Asked about the report that she is going to marry Talbot Tubbs, Mrs. Moody said:

"I am heartily tired of these stories about me, none of which has any foundation. My visit is being spoiled by these rumors."

In the semi-finals Mrs. Moody will meet Peggy Scriven, who defeated Miss D. Stevenson of Australia, 6-2, 7-5. Nancy Wynne, who eliminated Brenda James, 5-7, 7-5, 6-2, will play Margaret Lamb, who turned back Bobbie Heine Miller, 4-3, 6-1, in the other semi-final.

Fighting Fox

Victim of Epidemic

By the Associated Press.
Fighting Fox, star of William Woodward's Belair stud, is the latest to come down with the coughing epidemic that has been playing havoc with the nation's thoroughbreds this spring. The full brother of Gallant Fox started coughing after returning from Pinellas, where he finished far back in the Preakness. The illness will keep him out of Saturday's running of the Withers mile at Belmont Park.

Johnny Adams, the 1937 winner from Iola, Kans., is still showing the way to the nation's jockeys but his margin has been cut to seven by Johnny Langdon, the Canadian veteran. Adams has scored with 86 of his mounts while Langdon has counted with 78. Eddie Arco, winner of the Kentucky Derby with Lawrin, is third with 76.

Ben Jones, the Missouri horseman who saddled Lawrin for the Kentucky Derby, has gained considerably on Hirsch Jacobs for 1938 trainer's honors. Jacobs has thrown the saddle over 49 winners since January 1. Jones, whose Woodford Farm horses have been scoring frequently at Churchill Downs, has sent out 41 winners. Guy Bedwell, only Maryland trainer ever to top the list, is third with 35.

Magie Hour is proving a useful sort of a three-year-old for Trainer James Fitzsimmons, although it took a disqualification for the son of Sorlie to chalk up his second victory at Belmont Park yesterday. T. H. Somerville's Efface beat Magie Hour by a head but was disqualified for bearing over on the Ogdon Phipps' colt in the stretch. Magie Hour was the 8.5 favorite for his first start since recovering from a cold.

Mucho Gusto, one of the winter season's most consistent winners, is having plenty of trouble getting started. Favored in the Greenwood Farms Handicap at Churchill Downs, the Arabo Stable's star was third behind Southland Beau and Invincible, the early pace-setter. Southland Beau, a four-year-old son of King Nadi-Southland Girl, took command as the field entered the stretch and won by half length over Invincible. Mucho Gusto closed fast but third was the best he could do.

It came up mud at Aurora and Frank Seremba's My Feng, a three-year-old national, took the sixth race, ton offering on the card, by a length over the favorite, Low Cuts. Genesee was third.

Night Chase Rules Suffolk Card—Wilson

Lady Tichner Should Win Fourth Race With Ease

By DAVE WILSON
BEST BET—NIGHT CHASE, 2ND RACE
"Selections for Fast Track"

SUFFOLK DOWNS, May 19—Night Chase, a sterling second to French Bread in most recent endeavor, looks the part of a blazing cinch to triumph over less-capable rivals such as encountered in the six furlongs of the second number here tomorrow.

FIRST RACE
Fredrick, Blue Donna, Modius Dies
FREDRICK was beaten the narrowest of margins by Minny Myerson and Doris B in a $1000 claimer only a few days back. He adds weight to the tune of 11 pounds, but he must be favored over this field of 1250 pounds. BLUE DONNA, necked out by Doris B in her only start of the meeting, figures every close in what appears to be strictly a two-horse race.

SECOND RACE
Night Chase, Singing Slave, Country Lass
NIGHT'S CHASE will have fast-working Singing Slave to drub. The latter was a winner in Florida competition during the past winter. Country Lass also worked well.

THIRD RACE
Squawker, Earl Porter, Loafer
SQUAWKER lacked racing condition when recently beaten by Minny Myerson and Thumbs Down. EARL PORTER is dropping down a few furlongs and may prove difficult to handle. LOAFER is the class of the race and should prove real troublesome if not too sore.

FOURTH RACE
Lady Tichner, Sun Asia, Dancing Cloud
LADY TICHNER, second to Kindacorn in most recent race, should experience little difficulty turning back SUN ASIA. The latter runs well, but never well enough to win. DANCING CLOUD is endowed with a smattering of class and his big effort of the other day should not be taken too seriously.

FIFTH RACE
Midshipman, Scudder, Night Raven
MIDSHIPMAN is shedding six pounds in actual weight off his good fourth to Tobacco and needs only a good ride to insure brackets. SCUDDER was going away in six furlongs sprint the other day and the increased yardage of this number may prove right to his measure. NIGHT RAVEN, a faint hearted trick, will be on the front end as far as he cares to go.

SIXTH RACE
Kentucky Blues, Lady Higgins, White Hot
KENTUCKY BLUES, a crack sprinter from the Rosedale Stable, needs only to race back to brilliant trials to celebrate her season debut with a triumph. Five-eighths in 1:06 1/5 went as a final convincer. LADY HIGLOSS, third to Eastport in most recent race, is the solid choice on recent performance and may prove a real tough nut to crack. WHITE HOT is at the peak.

SEVENTH RACE
Evening Time, Stop Light, Cash O Boy
EVENING TIME gets a whole skyliff of figures on her last. In that race, Harvey Campbell's charge closewise like a runaway and press to finish second to Long Wave in a swiftly-run sprint that day. STOP LIGHT recently drubbed the top selections and may prove tough to handle. CASH O BOY is a possibility on best races.

EIGHTH RACE
Major Greenock, Story Time, Minny
MAJOR GREENOCK finished a mighty edgewise third to Wolfstan in his last race. He encounters less capable rivals in the night-cap and apparently needs only an equal shake in racing luck to put the purse on ice. STORY TIME, second to Alery in a recent sprint, figures to be right at home over this extended rode. MINNEY does well, too.
